The Sons of the American Revolution is one of the most active and public spirited of the patriotic societies. They originated the annual celebration of Fiag Day, saved the City Hall from destruction and permitting Army and Navy officers to wear the basics of the patriotic societies.

HEBREW INSTITUTION - HIS SON ROBERT NOT MENTIONED. The will of Eugene Kelly, filed yesterday in the office of the Surrogate, disposes of many millions, largely among his children, and leaves $110,000 to his cutor and trustee to be divided among Roman Catholic asy, ums and other charitable institutions of this city, as they may approve, and in the proportions they may judge best. The will was executed on February 16, 1894, and the executors named in it are the sons, Eugene Kelly, jr., Edward Kelly, Thomas H. Kelly; Paul Fuller, attorney, and his secretary, Daniel F. Sullivan.

The executors and trustees are first directed to discharge all obligations and to liquidate his interest in whatever firm or business he may be inthe testator leaves his city home, No. 23 West Fifty-first-st., with all the furniture, books, pictures and other articles in it; also the stable, No. 135 of the United States, in whose honor indirectly the banquet is given, the celebration being tendered harness and other stable fixings. She is to receive West Fifty-first-st., and the horses, carriages and absolutely $200,000 in cash, and an annual income of $5,000 during her life. Eight separate funds of $5,000 each are created for the benefit of his grandchildren-Mary Dolores Beales, Adelaide Elizabeth Beales, Eugene Joseph Beales, James A. G. Beales, Louisa Sarah Beales, Henry de Soto Beales and John Charles Beales, the children of his daughter Eugenie, the widow of James G. Beales. The trusts are created for twenty years, and at the expiration of that time these grandchildren are to re ceive the principal of the trusts. The testator gives to his nephew, Thomas J Kelly, of Jollet, Ill., $10,000; to his niece, Catherine Kelly, of Joliet, Ill., $29,000; to his niece, Bridget Kelly, of the same place, $10,000; to his nephew, Joseph A. Kelly, of Kansas, and his children, $30,000 equally: to Mrs. Thompson, of California, the for-mer wife of the testator's nephew, Patrick J. Kelly, and her children, $20,000, equally; to the widow, son and daughter of the testator's deceased nephew. Edward Kelly, of California, $20,000, equally; to his friend, Michael J. Hughes, and his wife, of California, as a token of his sincere and kindly regard, for them, $20,000, and to his friend, Willis J. Powell, of Louis, $10,000. He gives to his housekeeper, Mrs. Moore, to Mary Berry, and to Eugene O'Brien, who were servants with his family for many years, in recognition of faithful services, $4,000 each; to his coachman, Owen O'Brien, $1,000, and to James Brown, who was his gardener, $1,000. Two promissory notes held by Mr. Kelly, made by Mr. Brown, are cancelled. To each servant, other than those mentioned, who were in his employ five years, $2,600 is left, the money to be deposited in their names in the Emigrant Savings Hank.

To those executors and trustees who may qualify, and to Archbishop Corrigan, jointly, the testator eaves $119,000 to be divided among Catholic asylums and other charitable institutions of $10,000 thereof to such Hebrew charitable astitutions as they may approve. "This expression of my preference," the testator says, "is not to be nstrued as creating a trust or conferring any ted, nor does it subject the legatees to any ob legacy being made to them absolutely. The claymore was used also in the wars of the Covenanters and Cavaliers by Colonel Donald MacGregor, of Glengyle, the father of Rob Roy. It was for a long time among the relics of the Long Island Historical Society.

A CHARITY MATINEE AT DALF'S.

At Daly's Theatre to-morrow, at 2 p.m., "The Taming of the Shrew" will be given for the benefit of the St. Agatha Home for Destitute Children, Nanuet, Rockland County, N. Y., Augustin Daily having offered the services of his theatre and company for this excellent charity. The immates of the institution are the children of dangerous, neglectful or brutal parents, who have been rescued by the Gerry society and placed in charge of the Sister Gerry society and placed in charge of the Sisters of Charity, who conduct the good work. In the fifteen years of its existence it has cared for over a thousand homeless and destitute children, who, being of tender years, would otherwise have to be sent to the Island or some other public charitable institution. It was founded through the charity of the late John Red, of Brooklyn, father of the Rev. Thomas Red, S. J., of Boston College, A new building costing 50,000 has recently been erected, and this has made the necessities of the case more urgent. Situated among the hills of Rockland County, it is almost unknown to the charitable New-Yorker, but it is doing a worthy and special work, and has the approbation and patronage of Archbishop Corrigan.

THE WILL OF JAMES SIMPSON FILED FOR PRO-BATE-MANY BEQUESTS.

The will of James Simpson, of the drygoods firm of Simpson, Crawford & Simpson, was filed for probate in the Surrogate's office yesterday. The petition places the personal estate at $450,000 and the real estate at $20,000. The will was executed on November 15. The bequests are as follows: To Bertha C. Rankin, of Scotland, $25,000 in trust, the principal to go to her children at her death; to Bethia Lindsay, of Glasgow, $10,000 absolutely; to Euphemia Cassells, of Scotland, $20,000 in trust, at her death $5,000 of this to go to Robert and the same amount to John Mitchell, and $10,000 to David Simpson; to James Simpson, $10,000 in trust untihe is twenty-five years old, and then absolutely; to Henry F. Dodge, of Mount Vernon, N. H., $20,000 in trust, and at his death to his children; to Mrs. Maria F. Fowley, James McCormack and Alexander Wylle, each $5,000, if they are in the employ of his house at the time the bequest is made; to Elizabeth W. Presby, $25,000 absolutely, and all notes or evidences of her Indebtedness or that of the John Henderson Company are to be cancelled; to Frank H. Presby, of Newark $19,000, and to Mary D. Connolly, a servant in his house, $2,000. His wife, Louisa D. gets one-half of the residue, and one-sixth each goes to David Simpson, Oswald Simpson and Emily M. Simpson, the two latter in trust until the beneficiaries are thirty years old.

The will then says that if the testator is a member of the firm of Simpson, Grawford & Simpson at the time of his death, and if William Crawford is also a member, and the latter desires to borrow the capital of the testator now in the business, the executors are instructed to loan the capital of the testator to Mr. Crawford at legal interest for two years. If this is done, none of the absolute bequests are to be paid for that time, but only the incomes. The widow, Louisa D. Simpson, Frank H. Presby and Alexander Wylle are made executors, without bonds. house at the time the bequest is made; to Eliza-

TWO WEDDINGS IN LONDON.

ROYALTY AND THE NOBILITY WELL REPRE-SENTED AT BOTH CEREMONIES.

London, Jan. 5.-Frederick Carr Glyn, fourth Baron Wolverton, was married in St. Mary Abbott's Church, Kensington, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon to Lady Edith Ward, only sister of the Earl of Dudley. The wedding was the most aristo-cratic affair of the kind which has occurred this eason. The church was crowded with distinguished persons, and the wedding gifts were numerous and of great value. The Prince and Princess of Wales presented a diamond and ruby brooch to the bride and sent a set of silver Russian claret jugs to the bridegroom. Among the others claret jugs to the bridegroom. Among the others who sent presents were the Duke and Duchess of York, the Duke and Juchess of Teck and the Duke of Cambridge. Among the guests present at the ceremony were the Duke of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, the Countess of Essex and Mrs. John W. Mackay. The bride's dress was of white satin, and her travelling dress of cloth of a petunia shade.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the Dowager Countess of Dulley, in Grosvenor Square, which was attended by the Prince of Wales and many other members of the royal family. The pair will spend their honeymoon at Lord Wolverton's seat, lwerne Minster, Blandford. Dorset, after which they will spend a short time in Paris, and later embark on the Marquis of Waterford's steam yacht Fedora for a cruise in the Mediterranean.

NOTES OF THE STAGE.

A new singer appeared in "Rob Roy" at the Herald Square Theatre yesterday afternoon, taking he place of Miss Juliette Corden as Janet. She was Miss Mand Young. She is youthful and attractive in person, and sang well enough to make the managers feel justified in announcing that she would hereafter take Miss Corden's place twice a week.

The Abbey & Grau opera company will at last complete when Miss Spoil Sanderson arrives. She is due to-morrow on the Bourgogne, a ship which has occasioned more delay in the arrival of artists than any other one cause. She started only one day late this time. When Mme. Earnes and Mme. Nordica came, on her last westward voyaxe, she was four days in getting away from Havre, and changes had to be made in the operatic programme at the Metropolitan in consequence. This time no actual disappointments are expected. She is due to-morrow on the Bourgogne, a ship It is said that two remarkably attractive pr

6 East 23d St., Madison Square. Red Berries in the Snow.

When few and light the snow-drifts lay, We searched the woods, my love and I, Hoping red berries to espy. Long time we sought for them in vain, But ill winds sometimes furnish gain.

One soft, mild January day,

She laughed-and,-wishing long for this, I dared her mood to steal a kiss. Then soothed her wrath; "White berries, I Neath ripe, red lips prefer!"

SOZODONT made them fair, I know And, next red lips, they looked like snow! A PRAGRANT PREATH AND PEARLY TEETH are easily attained, and those who fall to avail themselve of the means should not complain when accused of gross neglect. The SOZODONT will speedily eradicate the cause of a foul breath, beautifying and preserving the Edward Schenck, Auctioneer, ON EXHIBITION MONDAY
